SOP Effective Date:	2-5-2011

I. PURPOSE AND APPLICABILITY

This policy relates to information provided in printed materials, CD-ROM, or other means, provided at the Information Desk, or other related locations, at TNI meetings, including the Forum on Laboratory Accreditation and the National Environmental Monitoring Conference.

II. RULES FOR USE

Acceptable Materials:

- Informational literature from government agencies or major co-sponsors of meetings. Co-sponsors are organizations such as the Florida Society of Environmental Analysts and not vendors help sponsor a particular meeting.
- Informational literature from trade associations that have a direct interaction with environmental testing such as ACIL, WEF, and AWWA.
- Information about TNI supported training courses.

Unacceptable Materials:

- Information from any laboratory, vendor or consultant to the environmental testing industry. (This would include universities and non-profits like Battelle or SWRI.)

III. EXCEPTIONS

This policy does not apply to literature provided in an exhibit area by a registered exhibitor. For any materials not covered above, the Conference Chair and the TNI Executive Director have the authority to act on behalf of TNI.
